

The Dawn Service Veterans March

A feature of the Brisbane Dawn Service over many years has been the March of Veterans from King George Square to ANZAC Square at the commencement of the Service. Regrettably, the numbers marching have dwindled in recent years and it has been decided to discontinue this aspect of the Dawn Service. We thank the many participants that have contributed to this aspect of the Dawn Service over many years.